

We do not agree with the Consumer Bankers Association proposal to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. If we want to talk to them, then we will call them ourselves. We do not need them calling us just because we already have a "business relationship". Thank you.